Description

The Duck Smith House Bed & Breakfast of Seagrove is a 1914 farmhouse featuring lovely rooms, gardens, tobacco barns, hand built log cabins, and a 100 year old walnut tree. It is conveniently located in downtown Seagrove within walking distance of 12 Seagrove area potteries and driving distance of more than 55 additional area potteries. Other local area attractions include the NC Pottery Center, Pisgah Covered Bridge, and North Carolina Zoo.

Hill Top Bed & Breakfast of Randleman, built in 1846, features a large front porch, four spacious rooms all decorated with themes from previous residents of the home; and a guest suite behind the main property. The spacious grounds are perfect for reunions, weddings, and receptions. Local area attractions include the Richard Petty Museum, Petty's Garage, and Victory Junction.

Hunter's Run Lodge is located near Asheboro's business corridor, Dixie Drive, on 168 acres of rolling hills with a large lake and walking trails. The lodge features large rooms, porches, decks and an open den and kitchen area with fireplace. Local area attractions include Richland Creek ZipLine, North Carolina Zoo and Seagrove area potteries.

Parkside Bed & Barn is a lovely three bedroom ranch style home featuring a rustic western theme that is located between Asheboro and Denton. The house sits on 56 acres with a newly renovated barn and five acre fenced pasture. The barn can accommodate up to eight horses, each having their own night light and fan in the stall, and is registered on HorseMotel.com. Local area attractions include Denton FarmPark, North Carolina Zoo, and the Uwharrie National Forest Birkhead Wilderness Area entrance on Lassiter Mill Rd.

Seagrove Stoneware Inn & Pottery, built in 1920, features spacious rooms decorated with original artwork and pottery from across the country, gas fireplaces, picnic area, and a large front porch. It is conveniently located in downtown Seagrove within walking distance of approximately 12 Seagrove area potteries and driving distance of more than 55 additional area potteries. Other local area attractions include the NC Pottery Center, Pisgah Covered Bridge, and North Carolina Zoo.
