Barbara Gallimore
Owner, The Flying Pig Food & Spirits

"My husband Dennis and I, and our partners Barry & Mary Ann, have always been in the business world, but not in the restaurant business. We talked a lot over the years about starting a business together, so ironically, when we opened we didn't know if it would succeed. In fact, we kept our "day jobs" at first, just in case it failed. Luckily, and to our surprise, it did succeed - even faster than we ever imagined.

I absolutely love being in downtown Asheboro. They have done such an amazing job revitalizing this area. Just 10 years ago, it was a virtual ghost town, and now it's thriving. I love that the city has chosen to keep its old buildings and its sense of history. We refurbish our buildings, we don't tear them down. I love the old wood floors and the old brick walls. Being downtown, we have summer concerts, Oktoberfest, parades, food drives, and everything is family friendly. We're also a must-stop destination for travelers. Some of the same people from out-of-state come by year after year to eat, buy antiques, and shop in our stores; and that's wonderful."
